

Money & Faith Retreat

co-sponsored by
The Servant Leadership School of Greensboro

. . . a time apart to examine the impact of money on our lives

October 28-30, 2005
Caraway Conference Center
Asheboro, NC

The purpose of a money and faith retreat is to provide a safe, inviting and supportive environment and fellowship for people to:

- Reflect theologically on the place of money in the Realm of God.*
- Get in touch with feelings about money.*
- Examine the power of money in our lives and its impact on families, institutions, national priorities and international relationships.*

A retreat, in a gentle and free way, deepens our faith in relation to money, and expands our understanding of stewardship in all of life. In this retreat, through Bible study, personal sharing, journaling, dialogue, silent reflection, prayer and song, we will explore together the biblical, personal and social & economic justice dimensions of our relationship to money.

Check-in will begin at 3:00 p.m. Friday, the evening meal will be served at 5:30 p.m., and the event will close with lunch on Sunday.

The cost of this money and faith retreat is $265 per person, all expenses except transportation included.

For more information or to register for this event by October 5, 2005, (later registrations may be accepted if the event is not full), please contact:
